

4 Nights, 4 YPs, 4 the Future

Detailed Agenda and Session Descriptions

Join us “4” a week of fun and learning in celebration of young professionals. 4 evenings of emphasis will focus on the 4 areas of a YP’s life:

Belong (Networking Event): Monday, November 3, 5:30 – 8 p.m.

- Location: ICON in the Gulch – Enjoy breathtaking views of the Nashville skyline at dusk as you mix and mingle with Nashville’s top YPs.
- Description: Enjoy an exciting networking and social event with hundreds of fellow YPs who understand what it means to belong in the Nashville area.

Engage: Tuesday, November 4

- Note: No scheduled programming will be held this night, as all young professionals are encouraged to get engaged in the community by exercising their right to vote.

Lead (Personal & Professional Development): Wednesday, November 5, 5:30–8 p.m.

- Location: Junior Achievement – This is a special place where students experience the responsibilities and opportunities of citizenship in a free enterprise system.
- Description: Enjoy interactive sessions of personal development topics designed to help you become a better leader by improving your strengths.
 - 5:30 – 6 p.m.: Registration and Networking
 - 6 – 6:30 p.m.: The Art of Communication – Kimberly Pace explores how to enhance and improve your leadership and team communication style
 - 6:30 – 7 p.m.: Web 2.0: Understanding the Technology of Today – Pinky Gonzales will discuss how technology has grown and the tools that are available to you today to grow your network and improve your business.
 - 7 – 7:30 p.m.: Delivering an Effective Presentation – Scott Schwertly demonstrates that everything you do in a business is a presentation – of yourself, of your product, of your company. Learn to improve your business skill in this area.
 - 7:30 – 8 p.m.: Leadership in a New Era – Micheal Burt, author of three books on personal growth, coaching, and leadership, will discuss ways to release talent and potential from his second book, The Inspirational Leader.

Prosper: Thursday, November 6

- Note: No scheduled programming will be held this night, as all young professionals are encouraged to achieve prosperity in one of the many ways that Nashville offers: enjoy working in our diverse economy, engage in the arts and culture available to you, network and build a new client or thank an existing one, or set goals to grow professionally through your career or through continued education.
